looking back from the present to the past we see . . .

the serenity in a smile, the frustration in a tear, and that longed for moment . . .

when tingling excitement
can be set free.

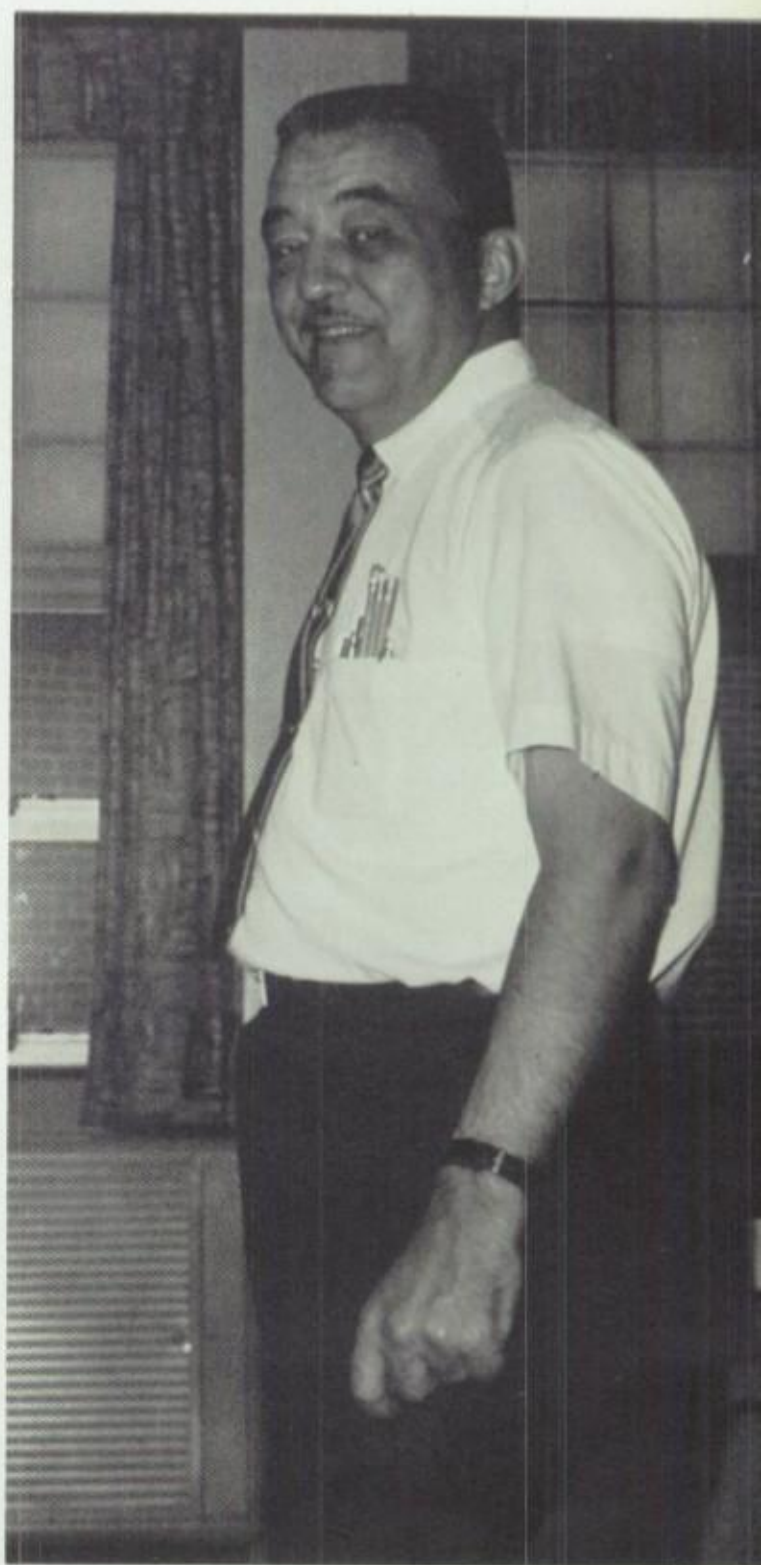

they're around
us every day . . .

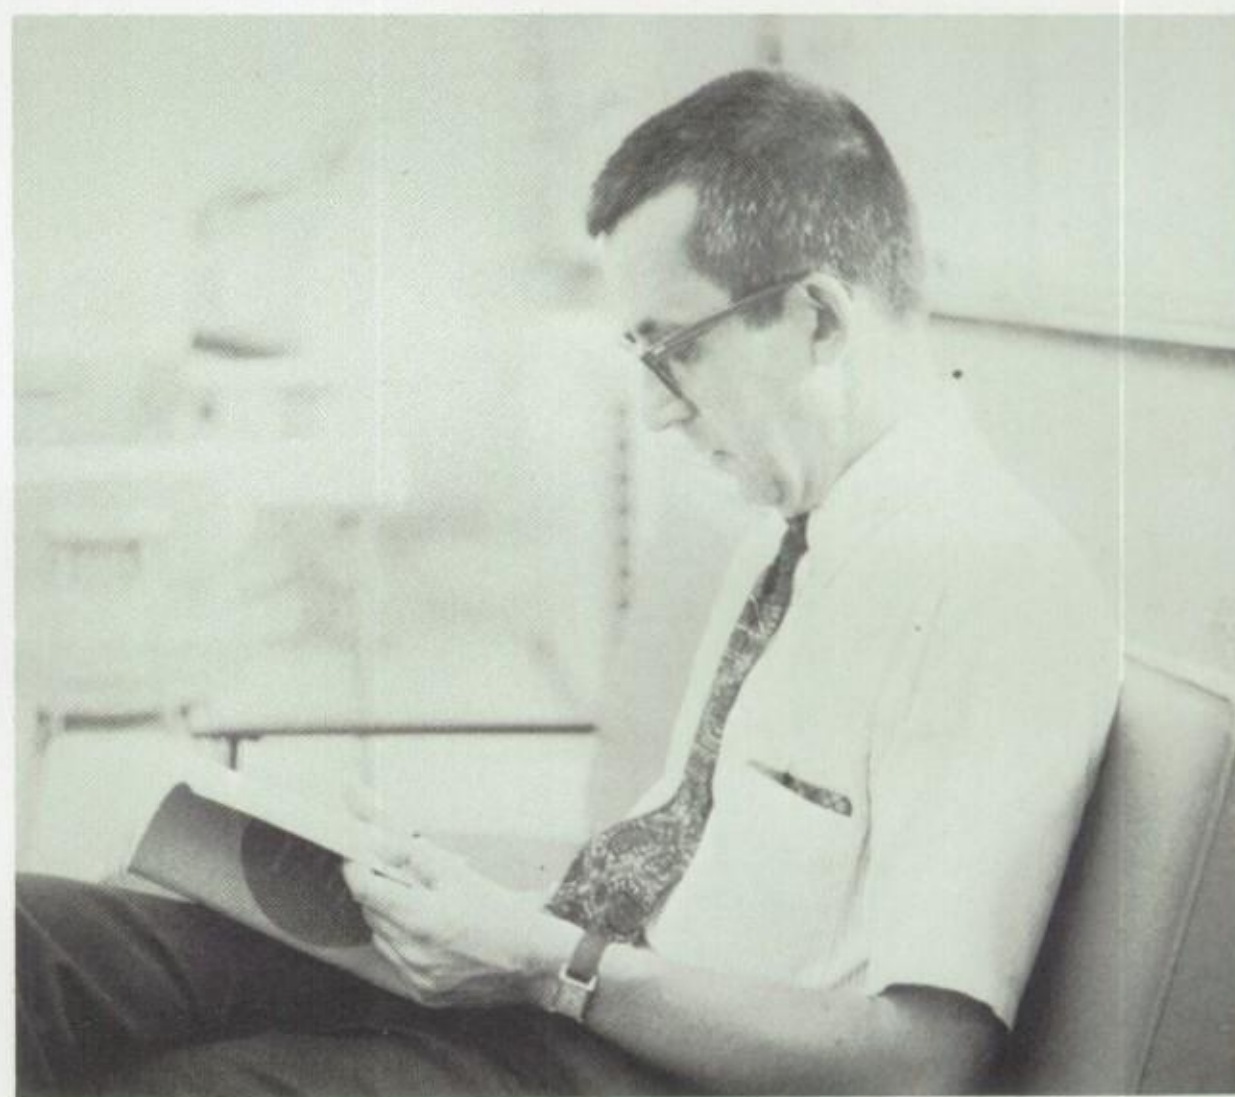

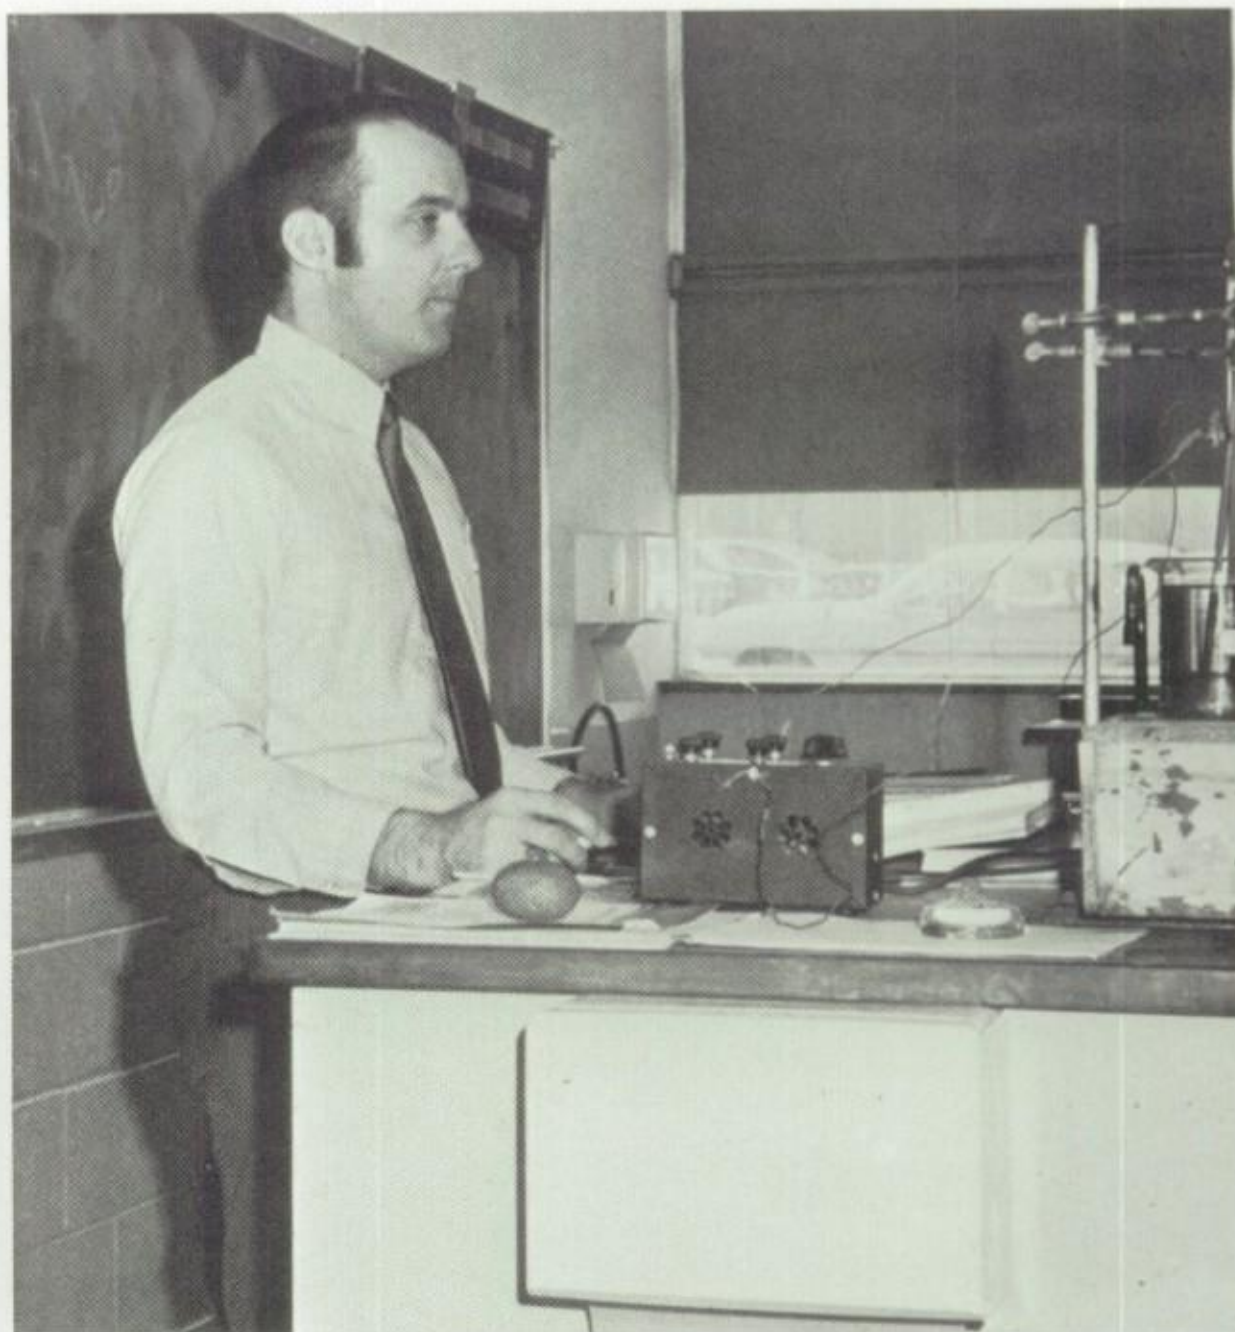

will you
remember them
like this? . . .

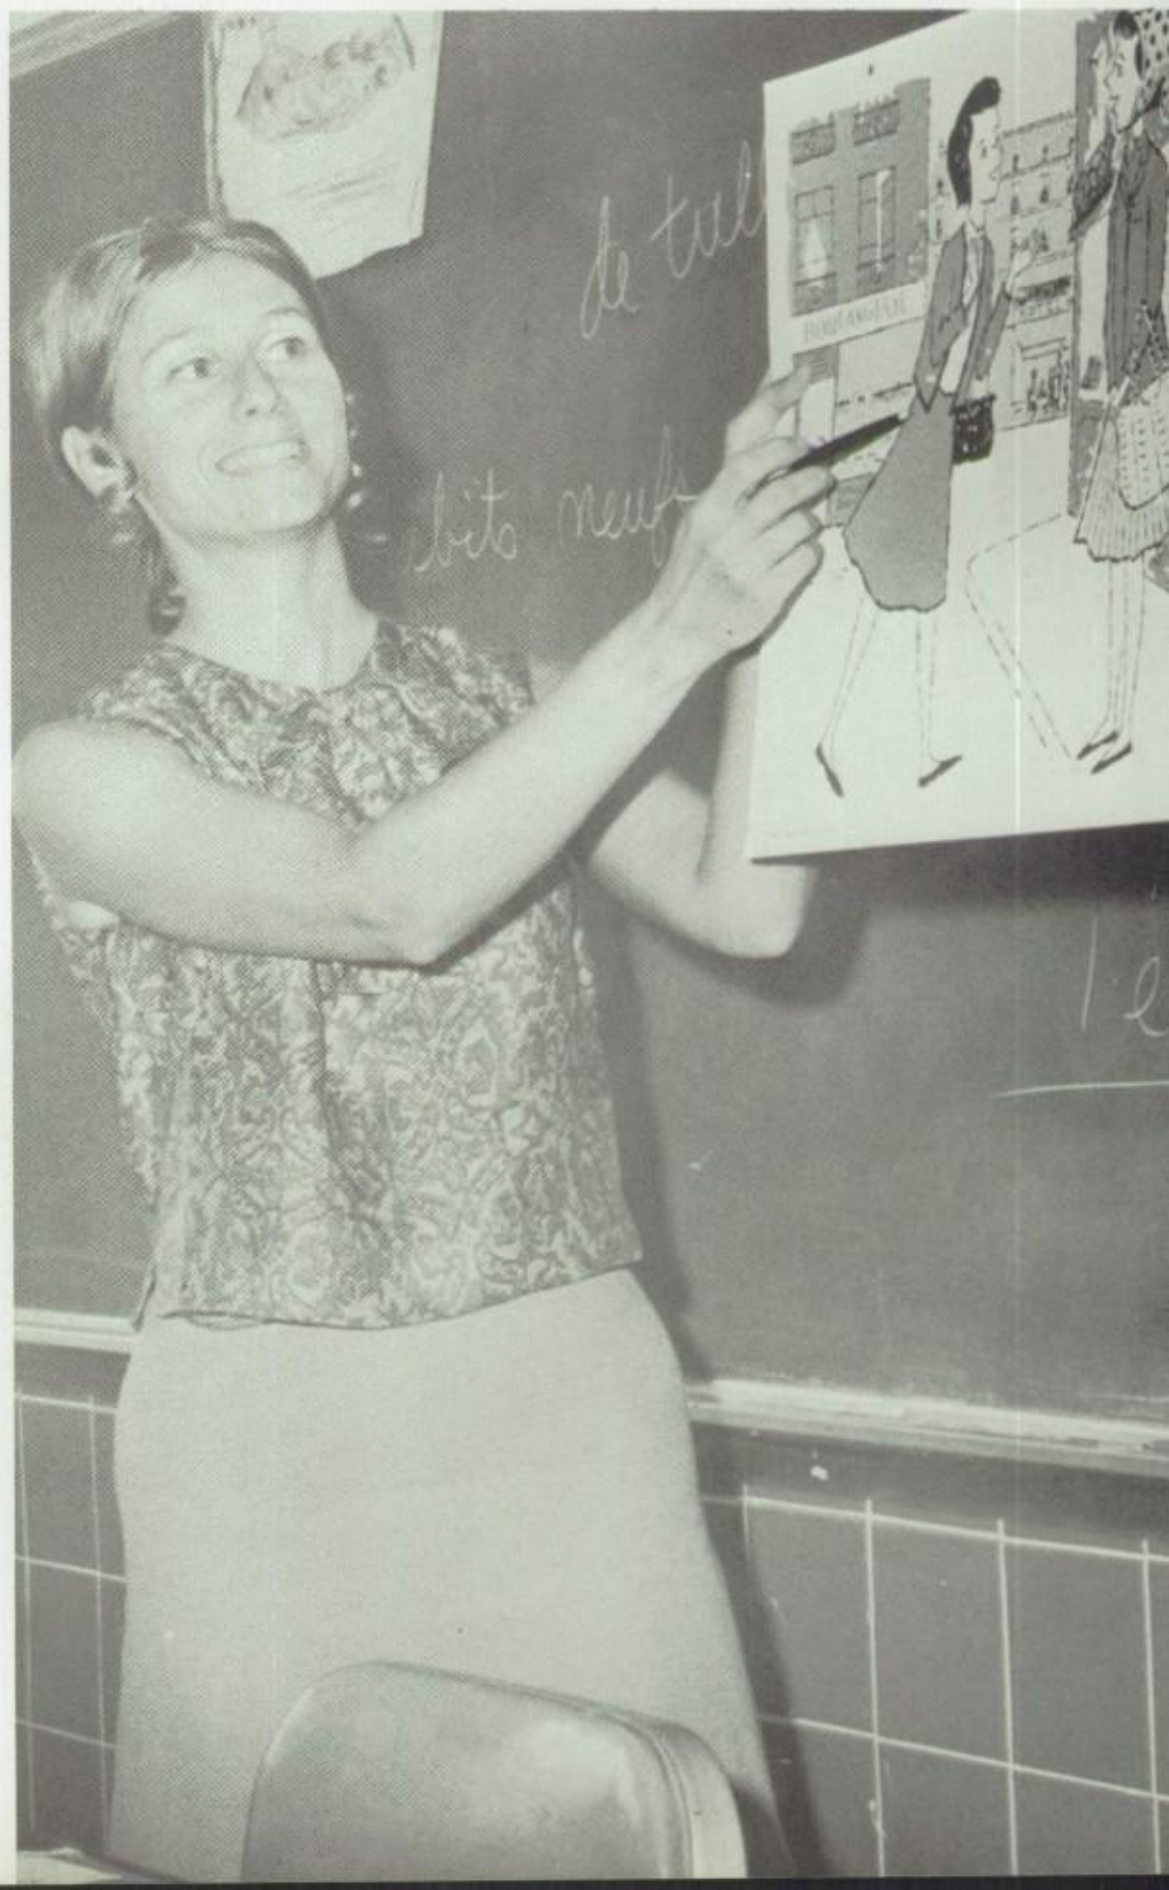

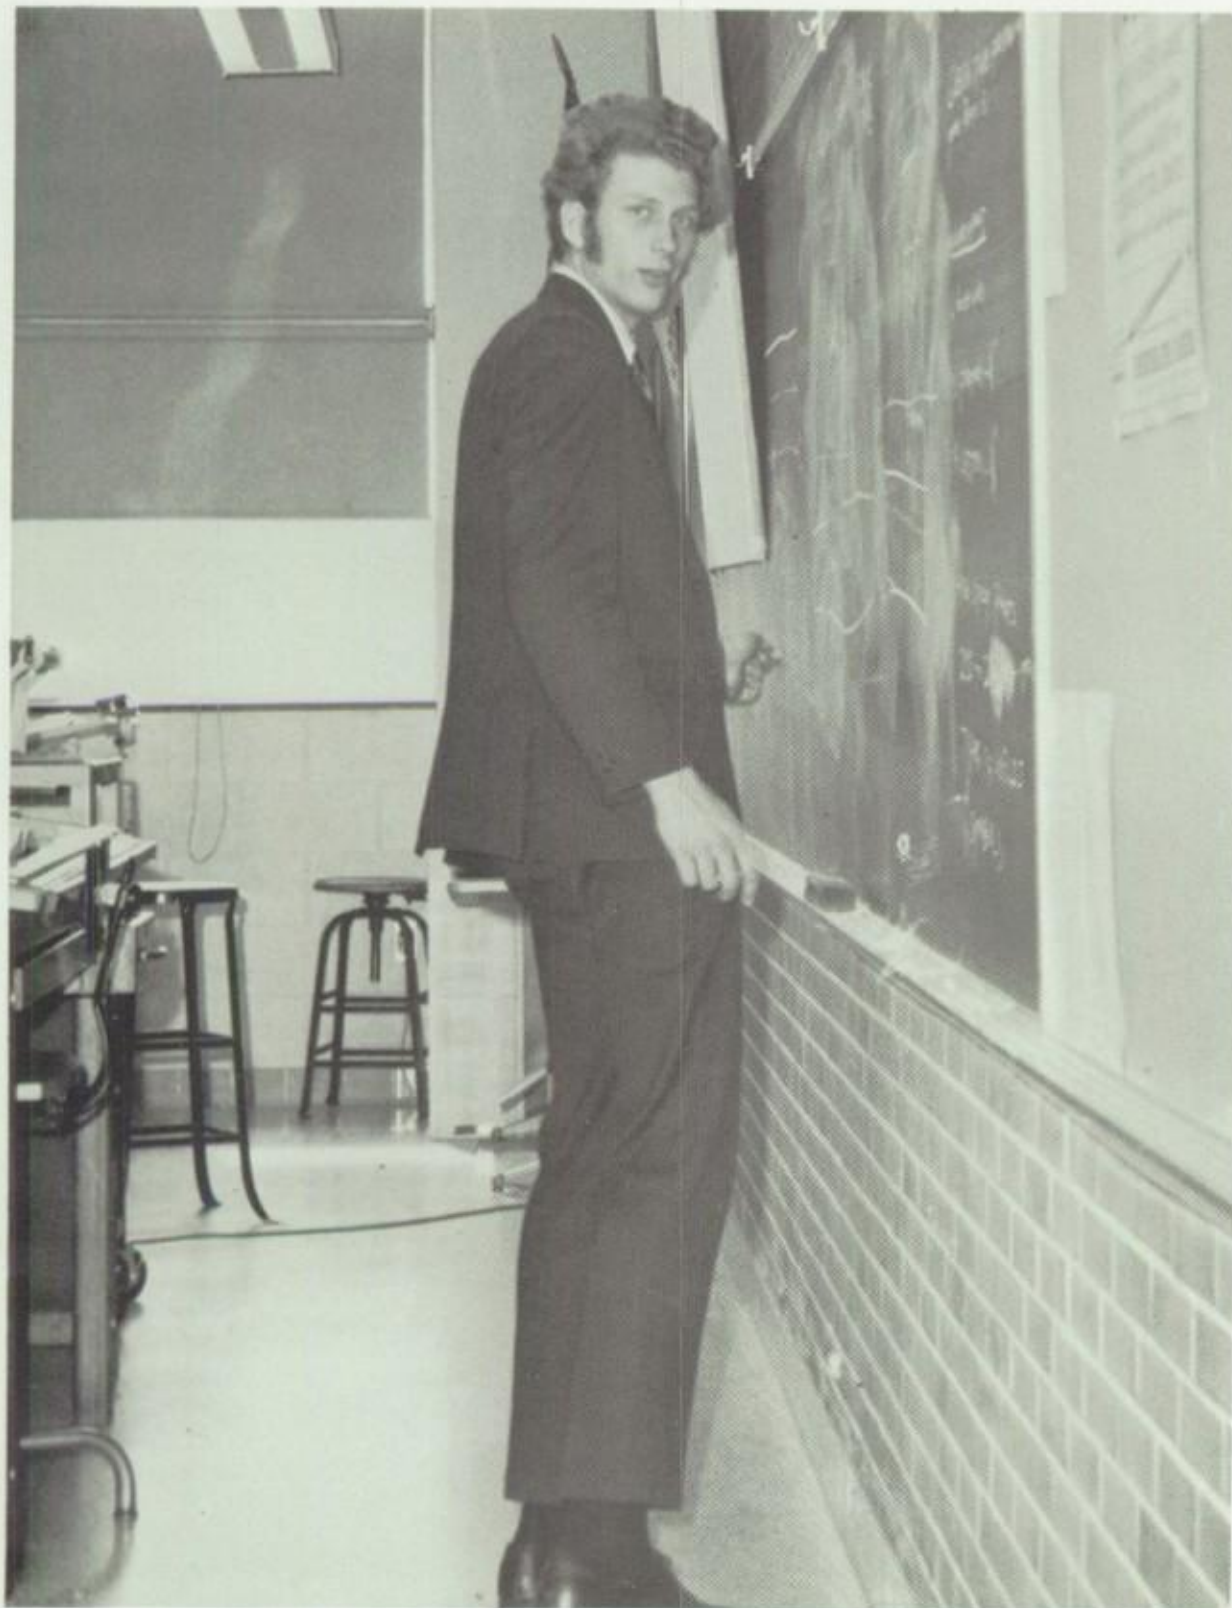

or this? . . .

the stands are packed with cheering fans . . . the bleachers gayly decorated . . . the crowd's frenzy begins to boil . . . the team takes no heed . . . for the universe is the eleven who dare to challenge them . . . and it all comes down to that forty eight minutes . . . the resounding crash of pad against pad . . . the despair of those beaten . . . the elation of the victors . . . it all comes down to moving your feet . . . keeping your head up . . . going, going, going . . . it all comes down to winning . . .

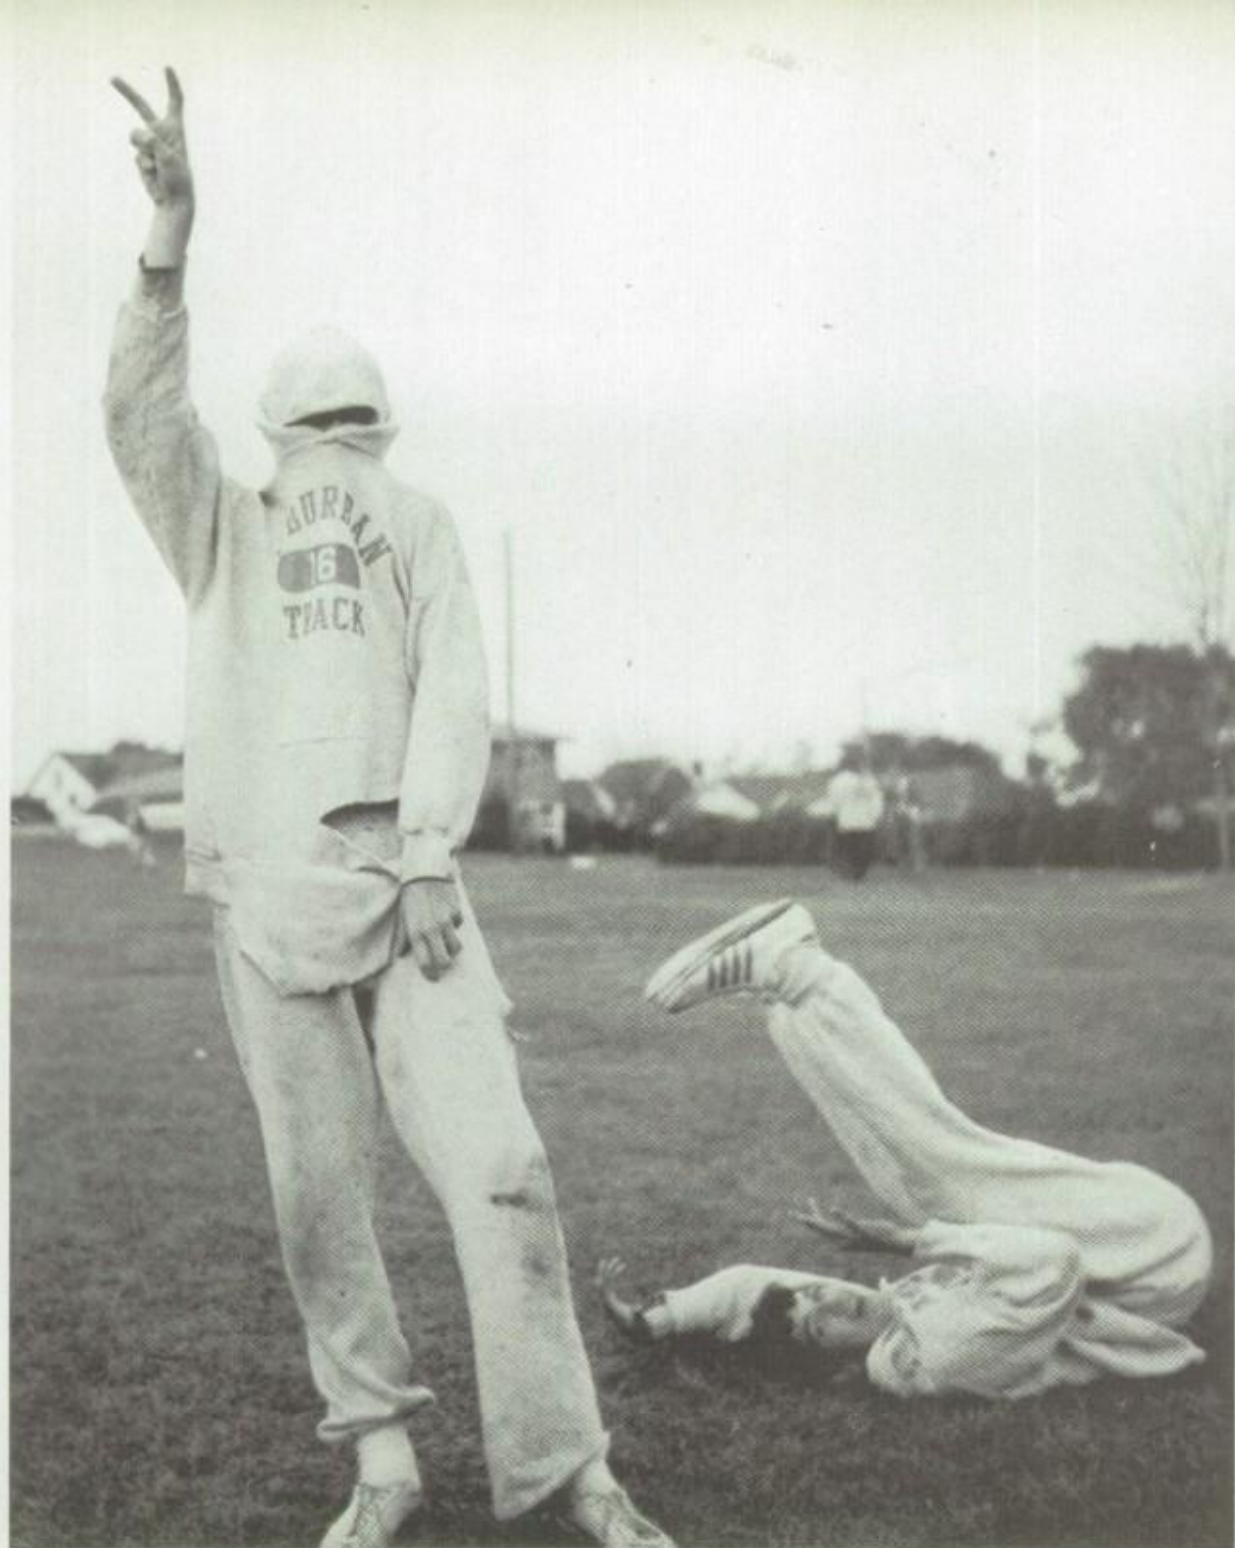

field hockey

... practicing to attain precision and skill ... detested double shin-guards ... nervous tension re-lieved by singing ... the zealot, mrs. z ... "every corner's a goal" ... "give all you can for twenty minutes" ... never stop-ping in that headlong rush for vic-tory ...

... the greatest race ... rippling muscles ... two and a half long miles ... running ... against the clock ... against the opponent ... push! ... stride out! ... you can do it! ... reaching the shoot ... grab your tongue depressor ... then ... surrendering it to your coach ... standing ... gasping ... the physical and emotional agony ... waiting for the final tally ... fifteen minutes of hell ... and most often ... the result ... final joy ... and always ... exhaustion.

tennis

a slight breeze billows the yard high net . . . the white ball reaches toward the sky . . . the racket connects . . .
speed, agility . . . and the volley continuous . . . a slight miscalculation
. . . the ball bounds out . . . serve, volley . . . again and again.

golf

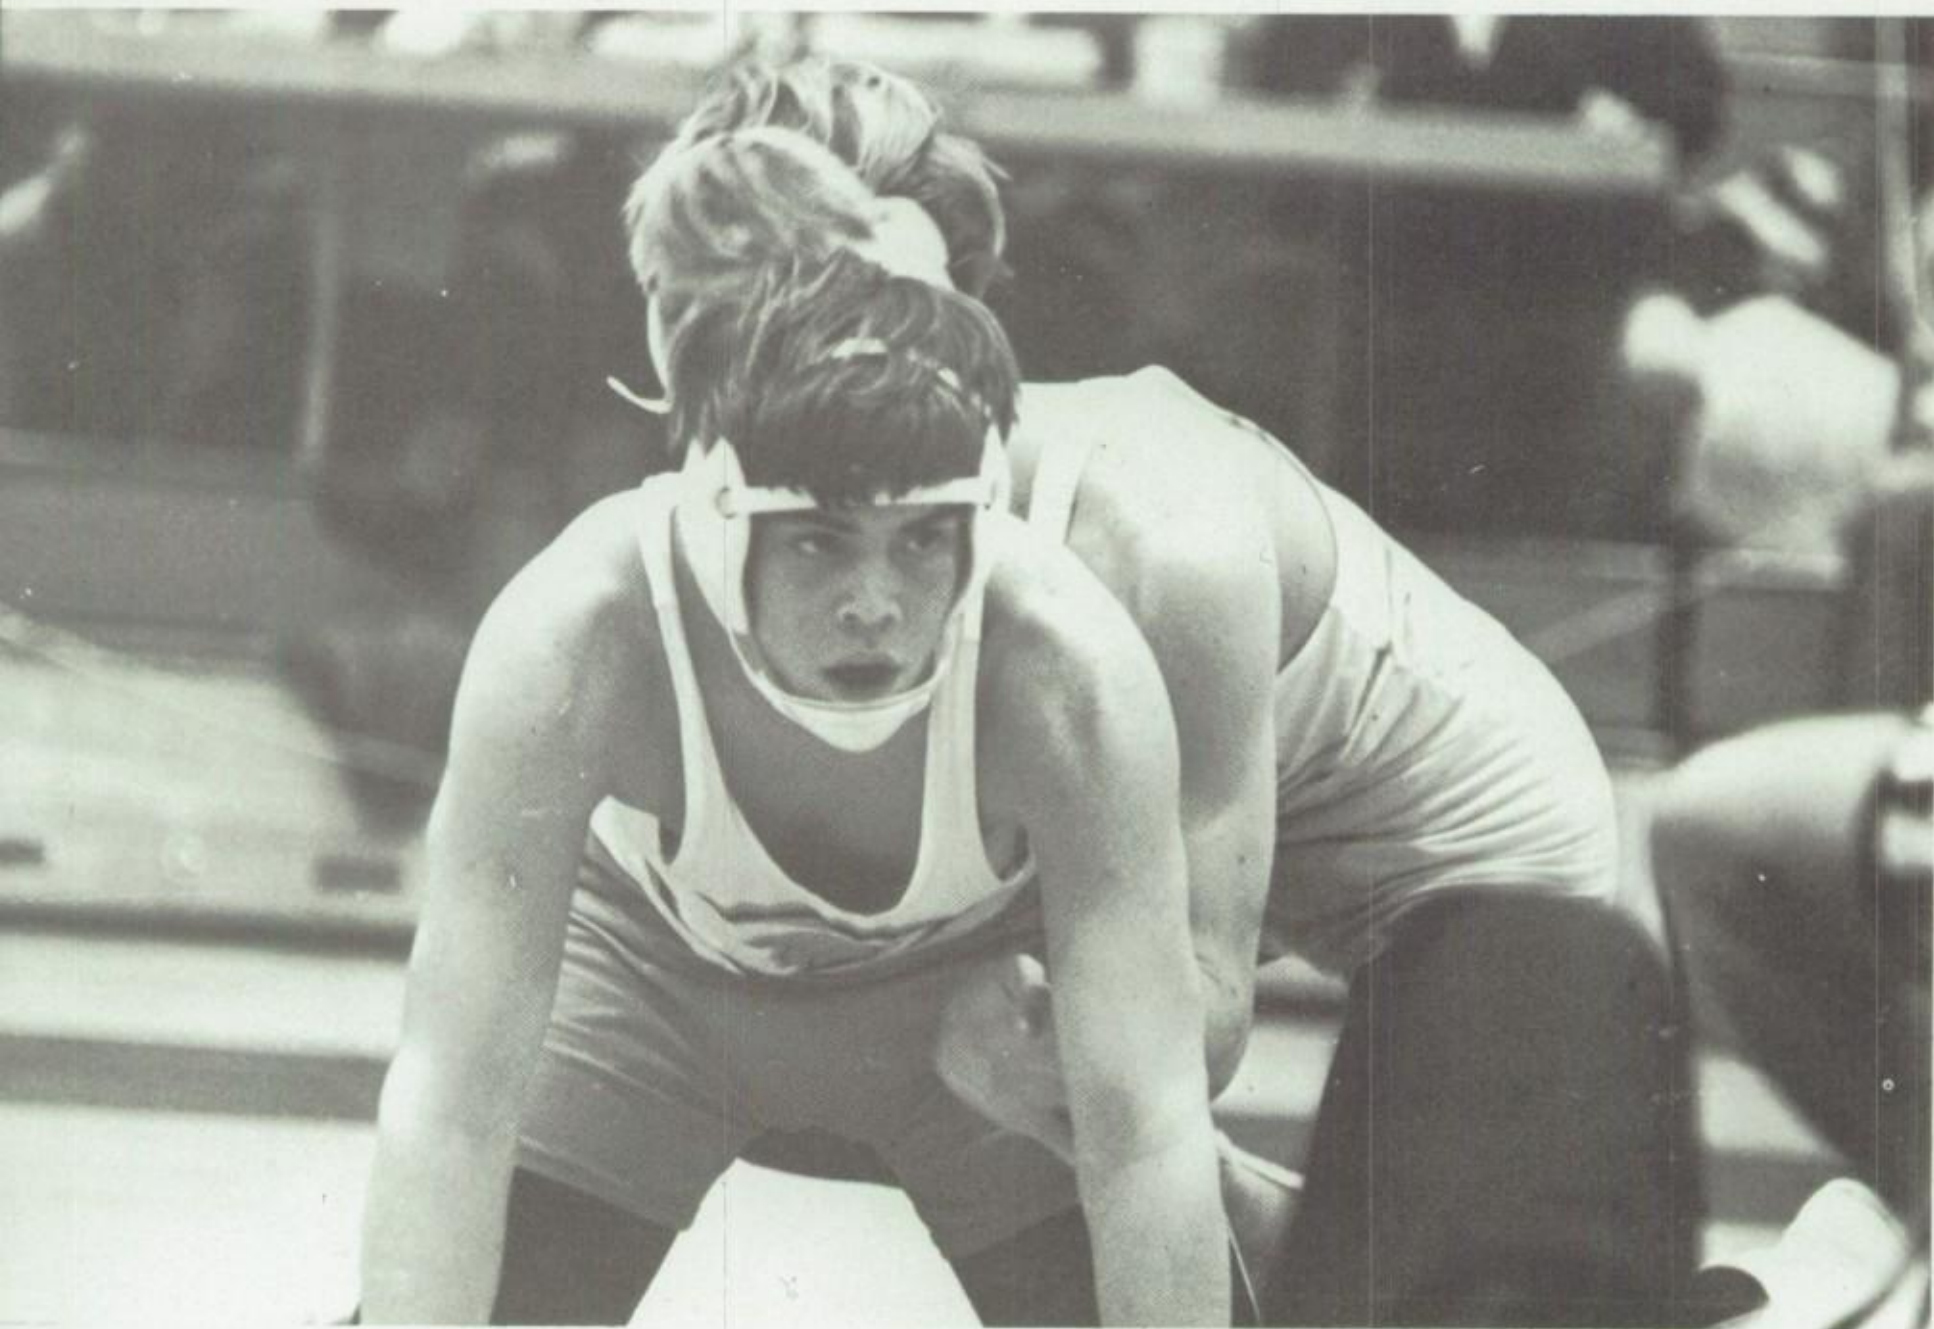

a flash of metal in the sun . . .
 resounding wack as it contacts the small white ball . . . ahead — a continuous green carpet . . . the hole seems so far away . . .
 meticulously calculated putts . . .
 quiet terror . . . slow swing . . .
 plop . . . and so it continues for 14 holes . . . an eternity in one afternoon . . . an eternity of hope, despair, defeat, and triumph.

wrestling

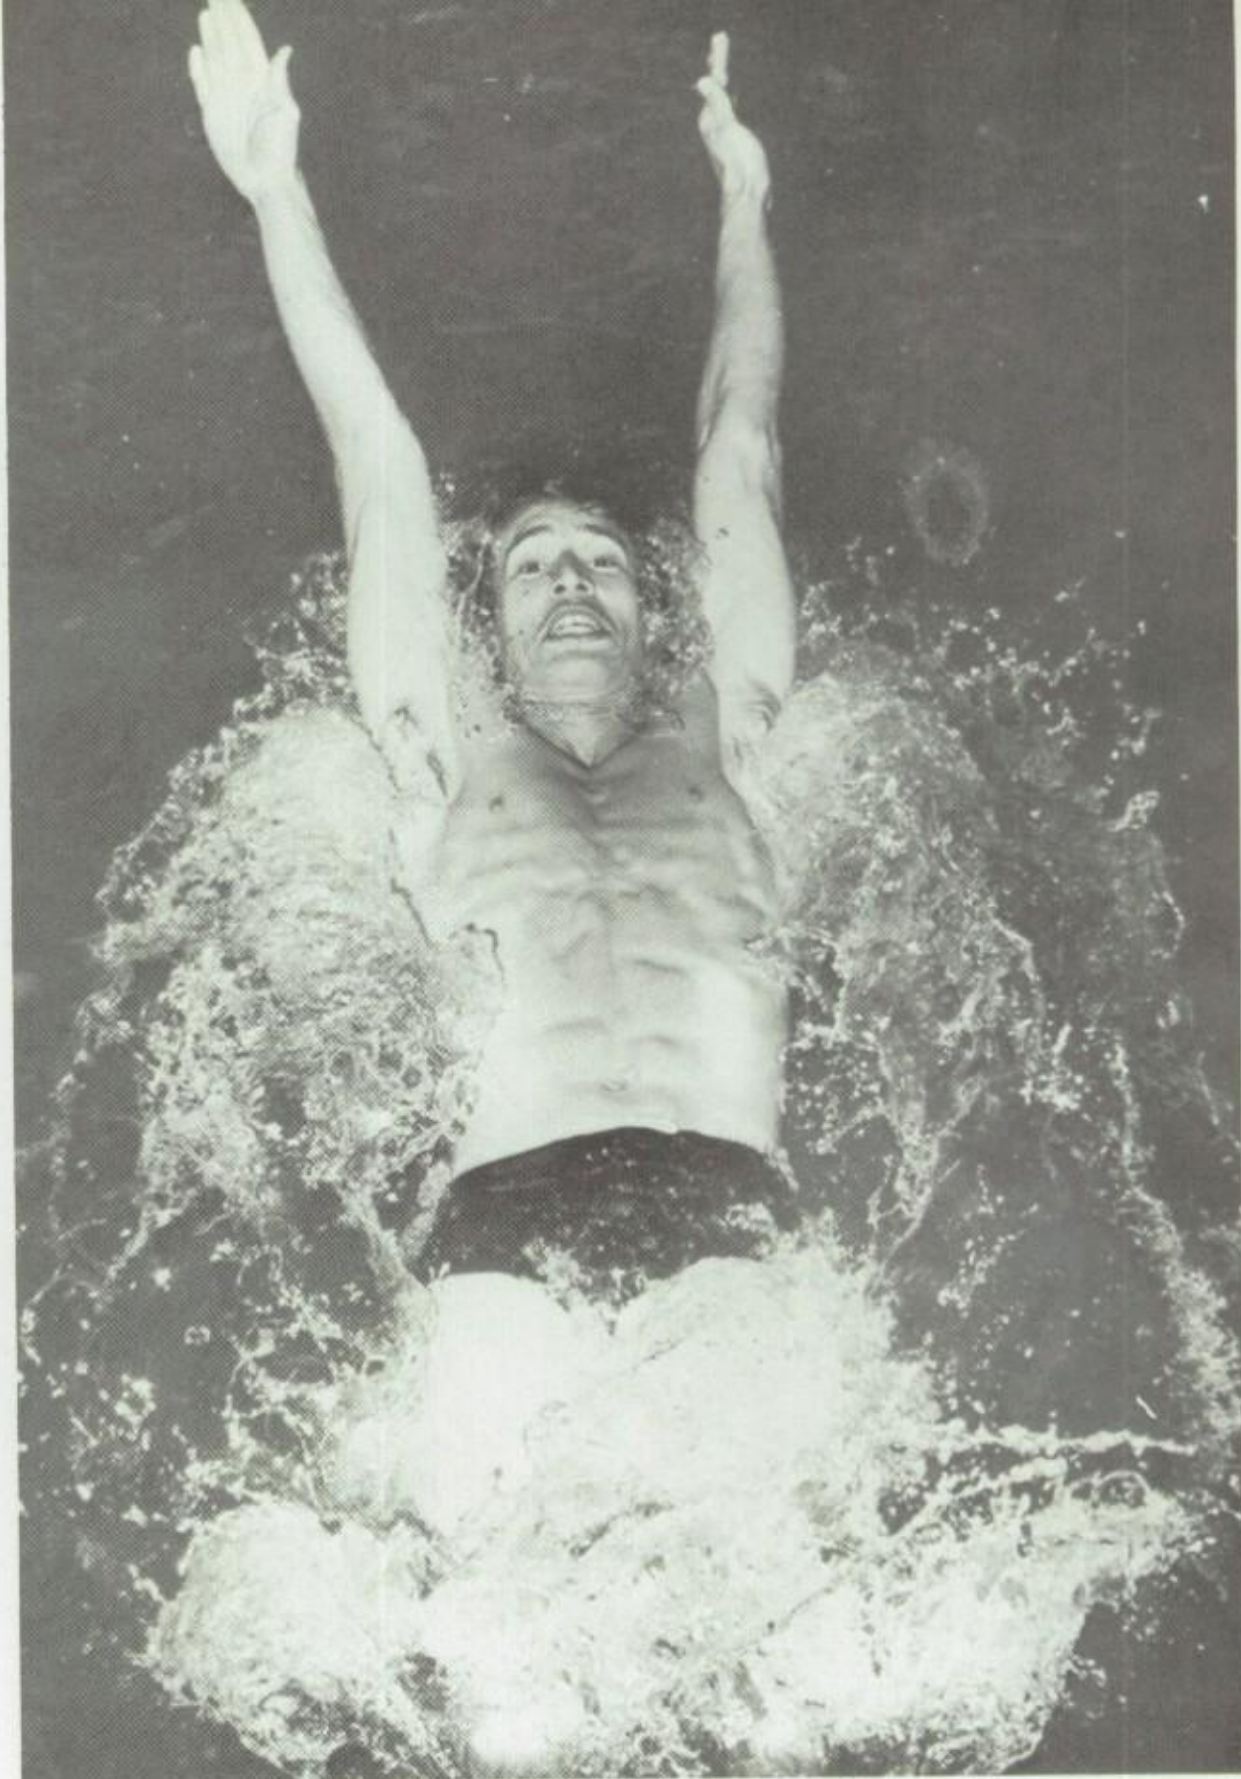

removing your jacket . . . last minute instructions . . . and encouragement . . . the coach tucks your shirt in . . . pushes you off to meet your adversary . . . you shake hands hastily . . . your heart pounds . . . for six minutes every muscle is flexed . . . every thought is on pinning that man . . . at the end . . . a hand is raised by the referee . . .

swimmers become league strength school began, swimming began . . . 5,000 yards a night . . . every night . . . harder, harder . . . more time trials . . . more hustle and success . . . five school records shattered . . . broken in the first five meets . . . mermen challenge district 3 . . . team spirit better than ever . . . guyers guppies . . . the guppy girls . . . new enthusiasm . . . over-crowded bleachers . . . anxious fans turned away . . . a good year.

basketball

... jump, higher! ... tap it this way ... grab that ball and go ... skillful control ... pass patterns ... shoot ... some sink, some rebound ... yelling encouragement ... thundering stands ... here we go trojans ... there we went ...

volleyball

whistle . . . straddling a high ladder
 . . . upturned palms . . . "let's go, suburban" . . . championship . . .
 so close . . . strained muscles . . .
 time elapsing . . . only a few points to go . . . the buzzer . . . the immediate pain of defeat . . . the gaiety of looking back and realizing
 . . . it was a good year anyway.

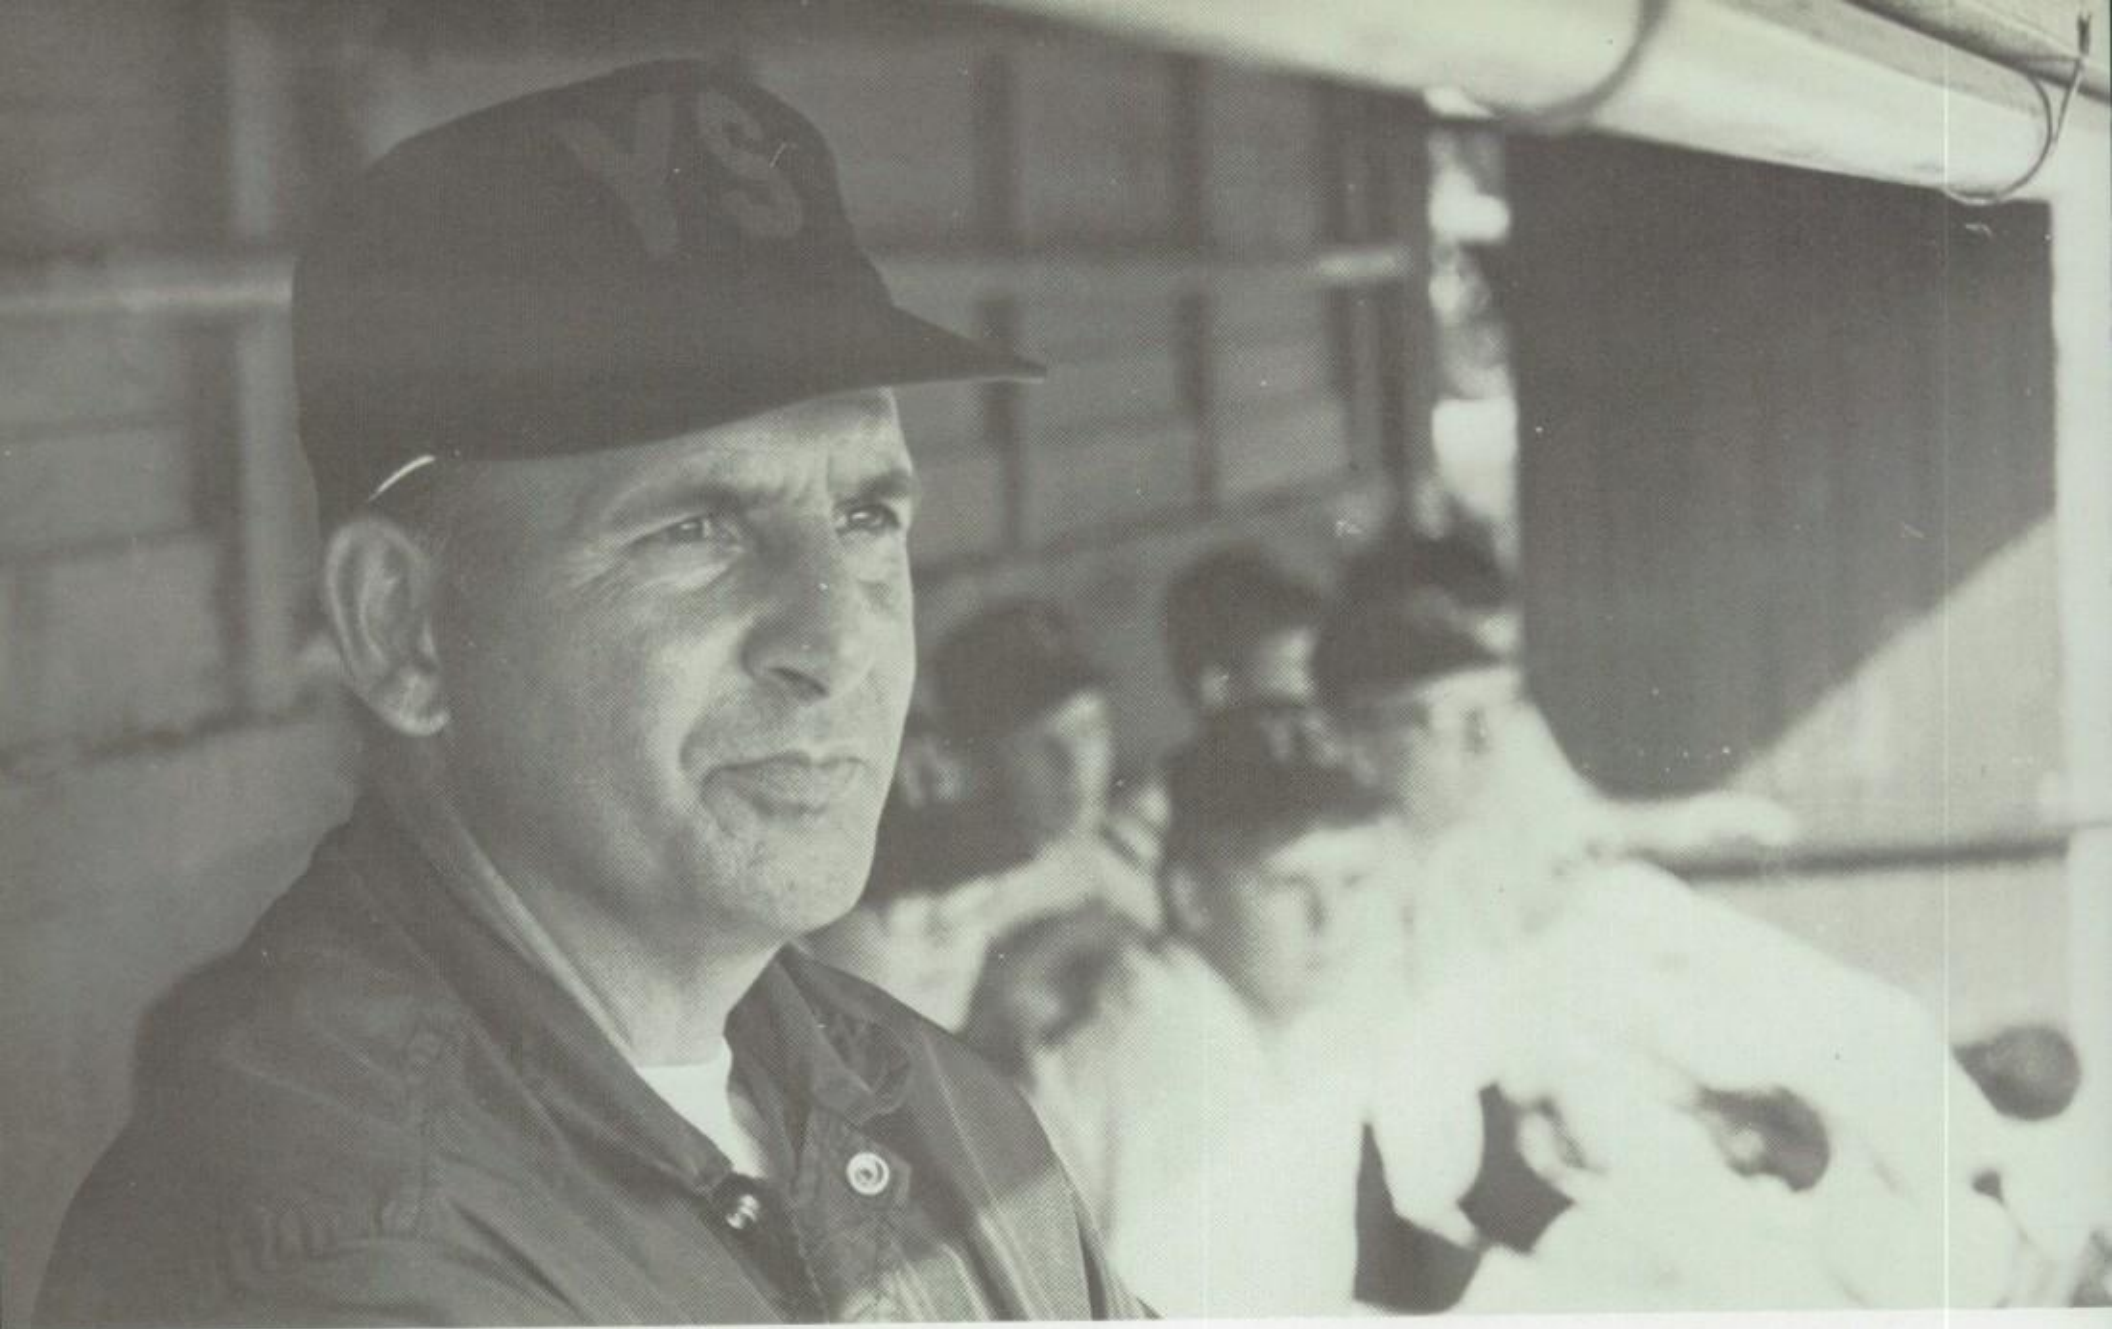

track

a puff of smoke, a flash of light . . . muscles straining, bodies charging forward, spikes digging, hair being blown by a mighty force . . . a white line protrudes from the black background . . . extending themselves, the bodies clutch for the line . . . then, quickly, stillness . . . some are pleased . . . some have lost all they have worked for . . . in time, others will strive for their moment over the white line.

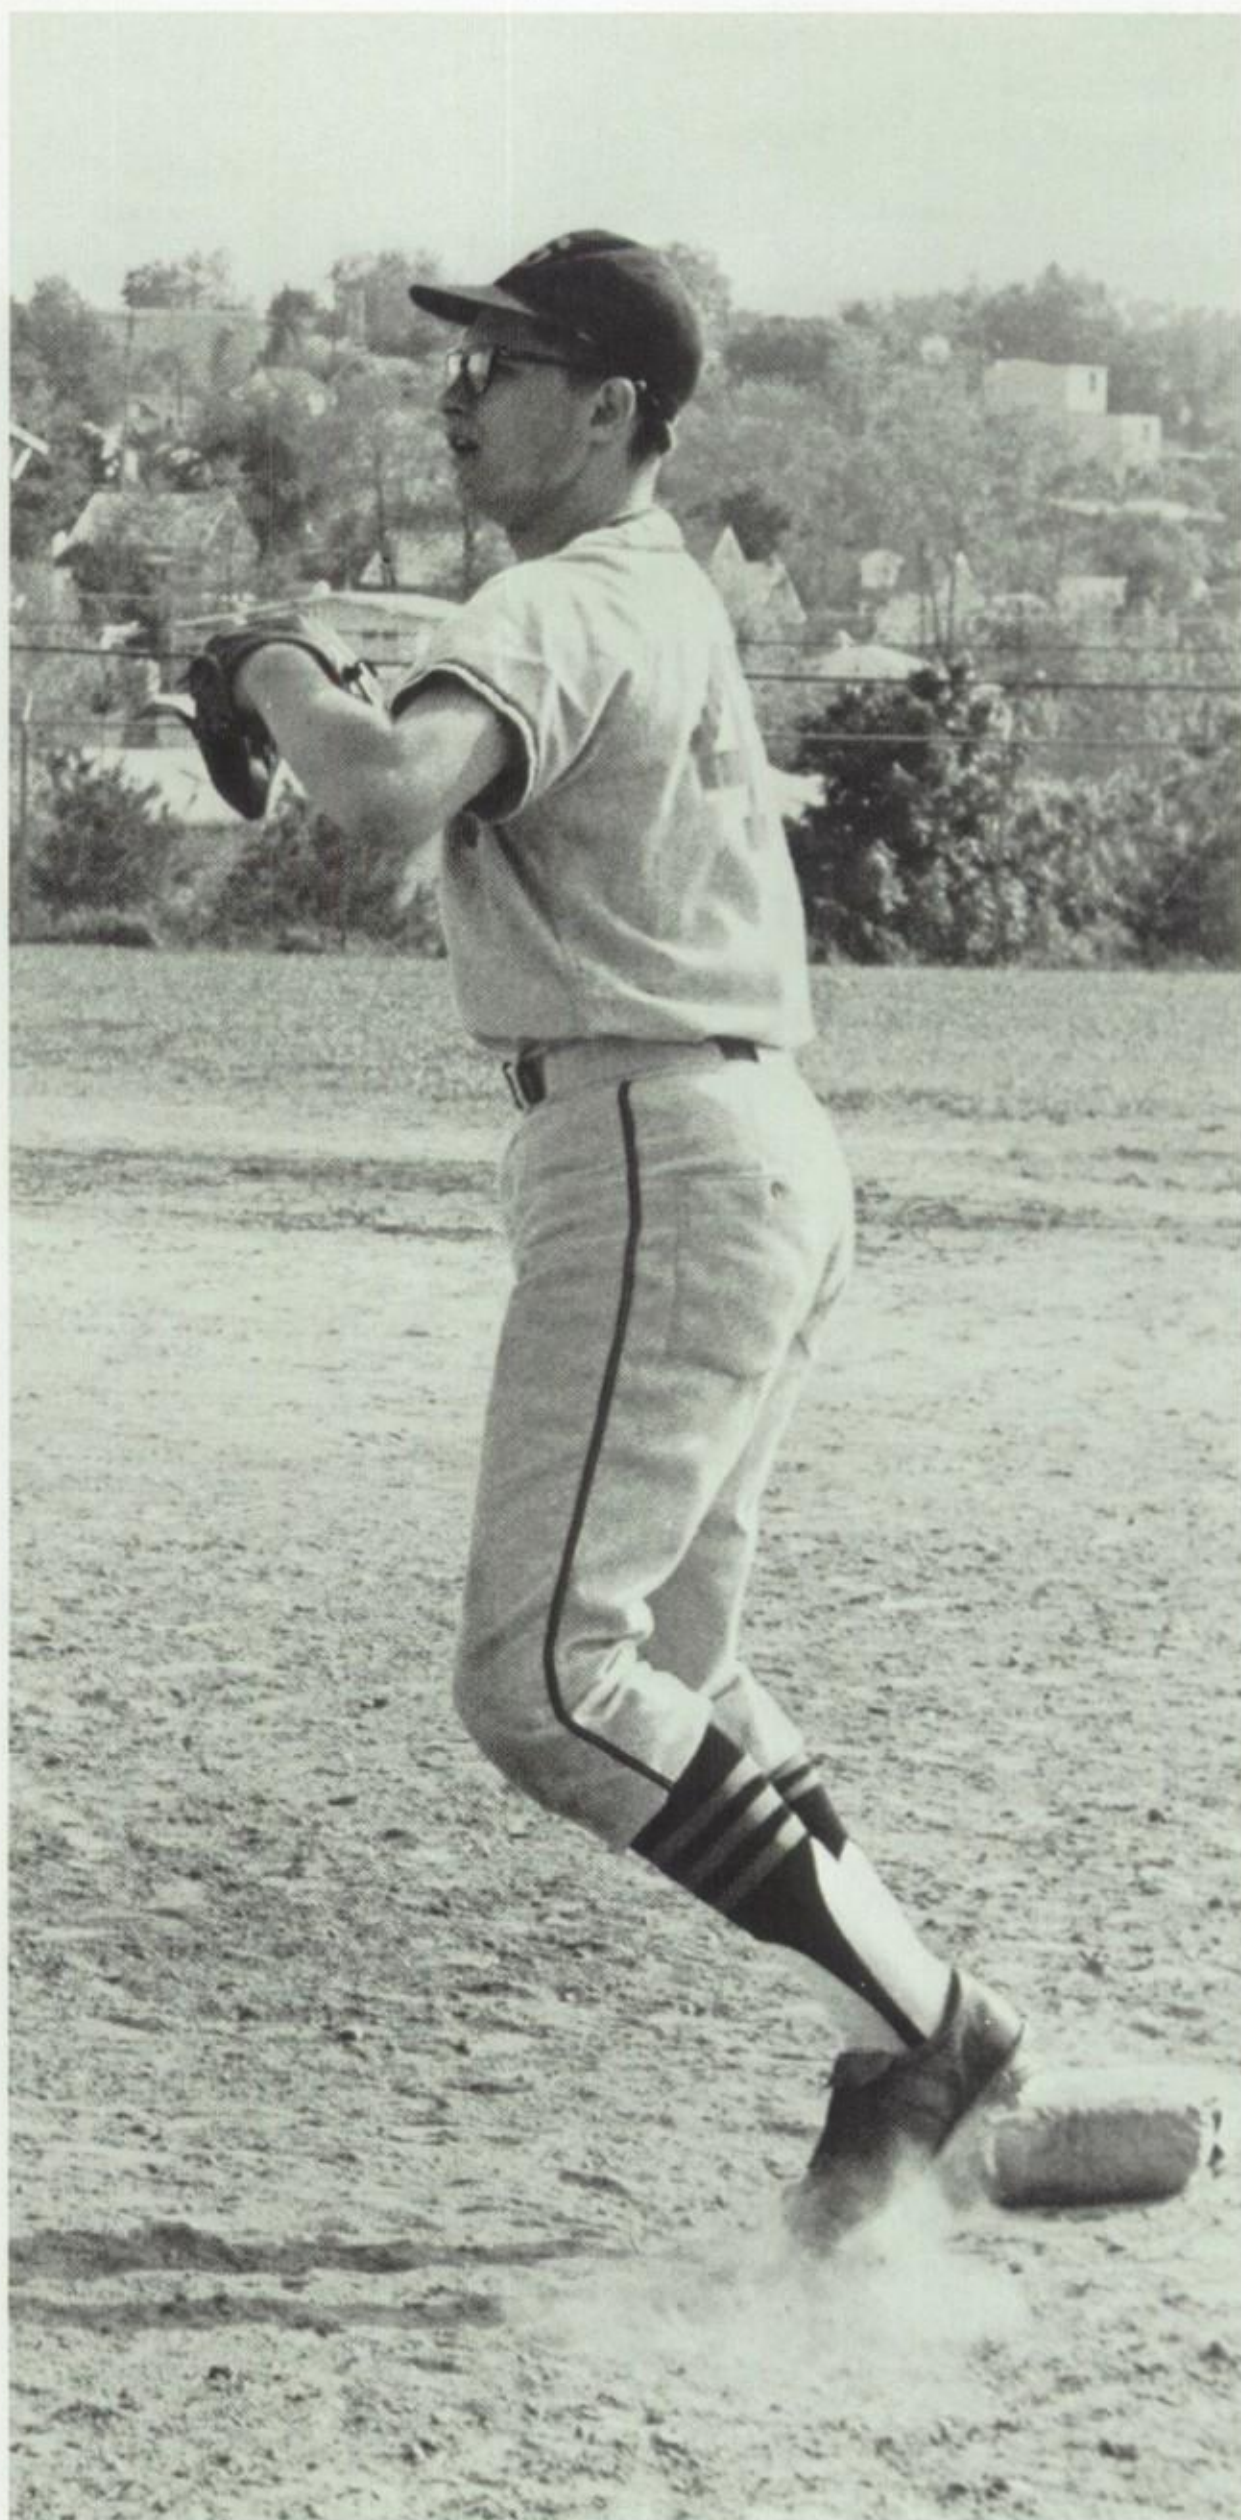

county baseball champs

stillness, expectation, then . . . the pitch
. . . a white streak . . . the bat bites the air . . . strike one . . . silence, waiting . . .
the pitcher winds up . . . ball hurtling downward . . . abruptly, the ball is in the air . . . higher, higher . . . muscles straining . . . heart pounding . . . first base . . . where's the ball . . . second, third, homerun, homerun . . . my god! . . .
homerun.

Thoughts on Virtues and Ideals

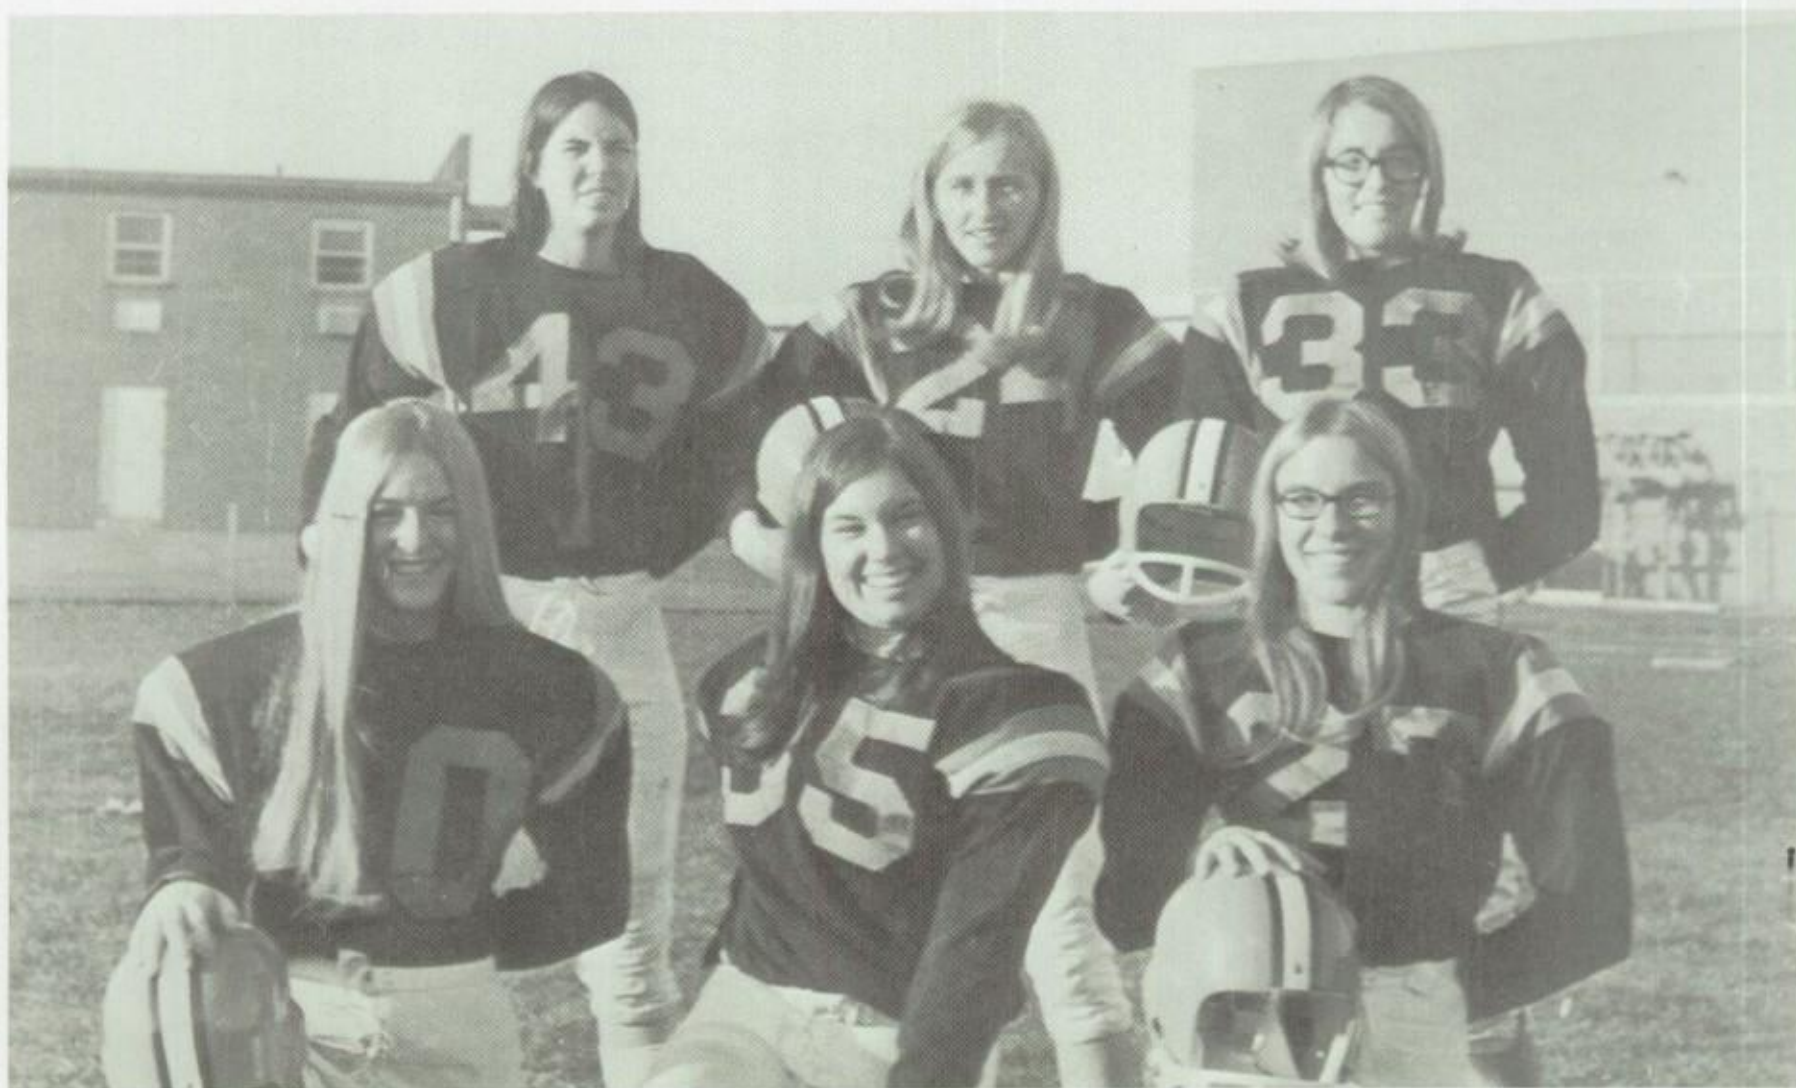

- *The way to fame is like the way to heaven, through much tribulation. Sterne
- *He who has not forgiven an enemy has never yet tasted one of the most sublime enjoyments of life. Lavater.
- *Friendships are fragile things, and require as much care in handling as any other fragile and precious thing. Randolph S. Bourne.
- *Frugality is founded on the principle that all riches have limits. Burke.
- *Generosity during life is a very different thing from generosity in the hour of death; one proceeds from genuine liberality and benevolence, the other from pride or fear. Horace Mann.
- *Good qualities are the substantial riches of the mind; but it is good breeding that sets them off to advantage. Locke.
- *It is only great souls that know how much glory there is in being good. Sophocles.
- *He is a good man whose intimate friends are all good, and whose enemies are decidedly bad. Lavater.
- *Of all virtues and dignities of the mind, goodness is the greatest, being the character of the Deity; and without it, man is a busy, mischievous, wretched thing. Bacon.
- *In life, we shall find many men that are great, and some men that are good, but very few men that are both great and good. Colton.
- *Everything great is not always good, but all good things are great. Demosthenes.
- *There never was yet a truly great man that was not at the same time truly virtuous. Franklin.
- *Make yourself an honest man, and then you may be sure there is one rascal less in the world. Carlyle.
- *He who says there is no such thing as an honest man, is himself a knave. Berkeley.
- *Mine honor is my life; both grow in one; take honor from me and my life is done. Shakespeare.
- *In all things it is better to hope than to despair. Goethe.
- *Humility, like darkness, reveals the heavenly lights. Thoreau.
- *Humility is the solid foundation of all the virtues. Confucius.
- *People seldom improve when they have no other model but themselves to copy after. Goldsmith.
